HOLLER FOR HOME

MISSOURIANS TO SAVE THEIR CHEERS FOR LADIES BAND.

FAME IS SHORT LIVED

Congress, Working Overtime on Memorial Services, Can Scarce Secure Attendance of a Dozen.

(By VanCleave.)

Washington, D. C., February 3.—Everything in Washington now is being made ready for the change in administration scheduled for March 4th. President Taft looks from the front window of the White House out upon Lafayette park and watches the workmen building reviewing stands with a sense of grim satisfaction. It is not for his old enemy Theodore. The inaugural committee is busy arranging the details of the inaugural celebration, and the suffragettes are busier than a bunch of hens in a new-made arden getting ready for their big parade March 3. Almost every window on Pennsylvania avenue has a big sign announcing "windows for rent for the inauguration." The price is $5 per, and there are no trees near. Boarding house keepers are looking forward with delight to their great quadrennial harvest, and those who expect to attend the ceremonies would do well to engage rooms at once. They may have trouble later on. Don't let the price worry you. It will be a plenty, but come present indications it will be a question of getting into respectable quarters at any price.

The suffragettes have been fighting for their "rights" and have succeeded in getting about all they want so far, and their demonstration bids fair to be an important feature of the week's festivities. All Missourians will be urged to save their biggest cheers for the ladies band of Maryville.

The present session of congress has been a strenuous one in both senate and house. The outgoing administration is anxious to close up many unfinished projects and to appoint all remaining Republicans to office, the house has all the big appropriations to prepare and put through in order to keep the wheels of government in motion and the senate had the impeachment of Judge Archbald and many important bills to consider left over from last session. The close of this session, March 4, will end this congress, and on all unfinished legislation must begin again.

The trial of Judge Archbald of Pennsylvania resulted in a conviction, the first time a federal judge has been so deprived of his office and honor since the foundation of our government. The case, in fact, is without parallel, for the case of Judge John Pickering of New Hampshire, the incumbent's name had been dethroned, and in the case, Judge West H. Humphries of Tennessee had allied himself with the confederacy. Judge Archbald's punishment could hardly have been more severe, as he was not only removed from an office paying $10,000 a year, presumably for life, but he also barred from ever holding any office of trust, honor or emolument under the United States government. His indiscretions amounted, in the eyes of the senate, to "high crimes and misdemeanors," and the penalty he received is a solemn warning that corruption in office and profit madness, the great contagious ailment of the age, must be checked if not cured. The decision also shows that the old method of recall has not lost its virtue.

The senate has just voted its approval of a presidential term of six years and of making all who have served as president ineligible to further service. Whether it will get rough the house in the short time remaining it is impossible to say, although it will have many strong supporters in the house. Limiting the president to one term is one point on which the friends of Champ Clark and William J. Bryan may agree cordially. The claims bill, allowing many old claims for property destroyed during the civil war, and of interest in Missouri, has passed the senate, but in such a way that it is some distance yet from the White House. The house passed the bill last summer allowing certain claims. The senate struck out practically all the house bill and inserted other claims instead. This means that the bill will die or that both senate and house will get what they want in conference.

The immigration bill is also nearing the point of becoming law unless vetoed by the president. It is an admirable bill in many respects, but contains some features that caused a determined opposition. The immigration matter has presented one of the knottiest problems the congress has had to deal with. That the present laws are badly in need of revision is admitted by all, but upon what basis to exclude immigrants, what test to apply in determining the desirable and the undesirable and how to do this with justice and fairness toward all has been a source of much study and contention. Under the bill just passed by both house and senate an educational test will be applied. Applicants for admission into this country will be required to read in English or in the language of their own country.

The house is not only meeting every day and frequently running into the night, but every Sunday up to the 2d day of March has already been set apart for "addresses on the life, character and public services" of various deceased members of the house and senate. The custom of utilizing Sundays for this purpose is largely peculiar to this congress. In former days, when congress held short sessions and often adjourned from Thursday or Friday until Monday, it was easy to work in a vacant week day to pay tribute to their departed fellows, but the strenuous democracy now in charge finds six days per week insufficient for their needs. This much to the disgust of a number of employees who are required to be on hand, although most of the members are not.

These days also suggest the emptiness of momentary honor and fame. Great is man in his day of power, but how soon forgotten. Last Sunday eleven members, ten visitors in the galleries and twenty-five or thirty employees assembled to hear and make addresses and do honor to the memory of former Representative Foster of Vermont. Mr. Foster was one of the leading members of the house. A year ago the house met on a similar occasion to do honor to the memory of Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia. Here was a man whose name a year previous was known in every county in the United States. He had accumulated a fortune of thirty millions of dollars and for many years was a powerful factor in the United States senate. He passed to his final reward, and in due season some member from his state introduced the customary resolution to meet and honor his memory. Not more than a dozen responded. His immediate family were in the gallery, but the thousands who a few months before were hanging to his coat tails and groveling at his feet had forgotten him helpless and powerless in his tomb. Such is life. And that is what all are striving and straining their energies to attain—position, standing and power, an empty nothingness, that vaporizes into thin air when the hand is off the throttle.

MEETINGS CLOSE THURSDAY.

Pickering Revival at the M. E. Church Will Have Big Closing Services—Rev. Cox Will Preach.

The revival meeting that has been in progress several weeks at the Pickering Methodist church under the ministry of the pastor, Rev. H. J. Dueker, will close Thursday night. Thursday will be made a red letter day and will be made of especial interest to young people. Rev. Gilbert S. Cox of the M. E. church of Maryville will occupy the pulpit at the evening service and will sing a solo. The choir will also sing special music. The entire day will be observed as a day of prayer.

There have been fourteen additions to the church since the meetings began. Rev. C. H. Sauce-man of Skidmore, who has had charge of the singing during the greater part of the meetings, was unable to attend this week.

Miss Hise is Improving.

According to the News-Press, Miss Eliza Hise, the school teacher of Quitman who was accidentally shot in the ankle by her cousin two weeks ago, and was taken to St. Joseph to the Ensworth hospital, is improving. Her physician says no operation will be necessary and that she will not lose her foot.

Left for South Bend.

Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Anthony left Tuesday evening for South Bend, Ind., where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Anthony's mother, Mrs. W. G. Mather. They will return in a few days.

FOR COURSE WEEK LIVING HAPPILY

GRAY'S SALE PAVILION TO BE USED AND WILL BE HEATED.

LECTURE EACH EVENING

Will Be Had and Committee Working to Secure Notable Men—Work Promises to Be Big One.

The Gray sale pavilion will be used next week for the demonstration work of the short course week to be given by the State College of Agriculture under the direction of the Normal. The pavilion will be heated so that all may enjoy the judging of the live stock in comfort. The best stock around Maryville will be used for this purpose.

The committee in charge are also trying to arrange for evening lectures during the course next week. They have sent for P. G. Holden of Iowa, S. M. Jordan of Pettis county, Dr. W. A. Whitten, state horticulturist, and T. E. Quisenberry, superintendent of the poultry station at Mt. Grove, Mo. Mr. Holden, Iowa's famous corn man, will be unable to come as he has engagements at other places for the week. The others, however, will probably be here, and the committee will get busy at once to engage a man for the fourth evening's lecture.

The short course week promises to be largely attended by the farmers of this county and also by many from neighboring counties.

The State Agricultural college will have their best men here and lectures will be given on subjects of farm life and problems. It will pay any farmer to attend this course.

WITH WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY.

Miss Zila Robbins, Formerly of Maryville and a High School Graduate Here With St. Louis School.

The following is from Tuesday's St. Louis Republic about Miss Zila Robbins, who is well known in Maryville, having graduated from the high school here:

An unusual honor has been bestowed upon Miss Zila Robbins, daughter of Rev. Dr. Grant A. Robbins, pastor of the Union Methodist Episcopal church. She has been appointed assistant to Dr. Roland G. Usher, associate professor of history at Washington university.

She will begin her duties the first of this semester. Her duties will be confined mainly to assisting in the correcting of papers.

Miss Robbins is a graduate of the Maryville high school and Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia. She taught a year at Epworth seminary, Epworth, Ia. She received a medal in American history from the Sons of the American Revolution of Iowa.

This year she is taking a graduate course in history and English at the university and expects to get her master's degree in a year.

MAD DOG RUNNING AT LARGE?

Dog Thought to Have Rabies Couldn't Be Located Wednesday.

It is thought that a dog is running at large in the city that is mad. It is D. T. Littler's white silk poodle that was brought to Maryville by Mr. Littler from Tulsa, Okla. The dog got loose Tuesday evening and no trace was found of him on Wednesday.

The dog bit the hand of Mr. Littler's little daughter, Leona, on Tuesday, and while the bite is not painful and the wound did not bleed, Mr. Littler took her to a physician here this afternoon and the Pasteur treatment commenced.

Mr. Littler and his family came to Maryville this week from Tulsa, Okla. and are at the home of Mrs. E. Burman, on East Third street.

If the dog is found by anyone the owner would like to have him returned to him, as a thorough examination will be made to see if the dog has rabies.

The temperature this morning by the government thermometer was four above zero.

SUSIE McLAUGHLIN SMITH AND HER HUSBAND ARE CONTENTED.

A POOR FARM ROMANCE

Husband Writes Letter to Supt. Brummitt and Explained Visit of Susie to Maryville.

According to a letter Superintendent R. G. Brummitt of the county farm received Tuesday from W. F. Smith, he and his bride of three weeks ago are living happily at their home near Savannah. Mr. Smith married Susie McLaughlin, an inmate of the county poor farm here, on Monday, January 13, in Maryville.

Susie McLaughlin Smith returned to Maryville last Wednesday, and it was then thought by the Superintendent and a few others who talked to the girl, that Cupid had handed her a lemon and that her husband had forsaken her. She came up here at that time for her trunk, and she said she had just enough money to get here, and this fact made some of them believe that her husband did not want her back again. But such is not the case, according to the letter received. Her husband said that she came up here for her trunk and that she had $5, but she lost the money somewhere. Money was given to her to return to St. Joseph by Mr. Brummitt.

Susie got her trunk here, but she lost it and don't know where it is.

The following is the letter Superintendent Brummitt received, which is dated Savannah, Mo., rural route No. 6, February 3, 1913:

"Mr. Brummitt: Dear Sir—This leaves us all well. Susie and the girls are at home happy. Mr. Brummitt, I sent Susie up to Maryville last Wednesday to give you $3 on check, which I gave you. My boy had used the money that I told him to deposit Monday when we were married, but he didn't go to town, so I didn't know any different for a week, and I also paid her fare up there and gave her $5 besides the $3 for you, and she has lost it all, and she has had quite a time to get back. She don't know where her trunk is. Please advise us about it. Address W. F. Smith."

TWO SHOPS CONSOLIDATED.

Plumbing Companies Are Now Under the Name of the Standard.

A deal was closed Wednesday by which the Maryville Plumbing company was consolidated with the Standard Plumbing company under the name of the Standard. The two shops will be combined at the present place of business of the Standard on South Main street, which is to be remodeled and fixed up into a first class plumbing shop, equal the new proprietors say, to any in the city.

A model bath room will be fully equipped with the latest fixtures, as will also a model kitchen. Heating plants of two or three different kinds will be installed in the show room, so that practical demonstrations of the latest apparatus for this purpose can be fully demonstrated.

The proprietors say that with one large plumbing establishment far better service can be rendered at even less expense than with two, and that with the larger plant far better assortments of fixtures can be carried.

Felix Grundy, for many years in the plumbing business here, retires from the firm. Mr. Grundy has not taken an active interest in the business for some time. The new company will be composed of Roy E. Martin and L. D. Hollowell, both of whom are well known here and should make a great success working together.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

Y. W. C. A. of Normal Selected Miss Mattie Simmons as President.

The Young Women's Christian association of the Normal elected the following officers Tuesday morning for the next school semester:

President—Mattie Simmons. Vice president—Grace De Motte. Secretary—Frances Rickenbrode. Treasurer—Vivian Seat.

Miss Laura Ozenberger, the former president of the association, has been a most satisfactory official and the Y. W. has flourished under her jurisdiction.

Arkansas Visitors Here.

James Hays and Mrs. George Hays of Rogers, Ark., and Mrs. M. E. Steen of St. Joseph were Maryville business visitors Wednesday.

DRY-WET FIGHT.

County Unit Local Option Bill Up Thursday at Jefferson City.

Jefferson City, Feb. 4.—The present week promises to be the most interesting, so far of the legislature. The so-called county unit bills probably will be reached in both houses so that there will be a distinct line-up on the liquor question. Last Friday the house showed tendencies of dryness, but the senate is expected to show a tendency the other way.

Not satisfied with the fact that the drys have forced the county unit bill on the calendar in spite of an adverse committee report, the opposition will renew the fight on the measure at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. This is the time agreed upon between the advocates and the opposition for consideration of the bill, which provides that counties voting on local option shall vote on the question irrespective of the size of the towns within the county.

The question came up when Representative Hay of Callaway county explained the purpose of the bill that had been placed on the calendar last week. Representative E. C. Orr, Democratic floor leader, at that time explained his opposition, but there was no indication of the radical difference between the two leaders when the measure was made a special order. Hay made the proposition, and Orr at once approved the plan that enables the two sides to discuss the merits of the question involved.

From the fact that there are reported to be eighty-four dry members in the house it is accepted that there will be no trouble in passing the bill at least through the lower branch of the general assembly. But there is greater doubt as to the action of the senate. There, if anything, those opposing the drys, or the wets, will have a better chance, although it is not certain what the senate will do.

The better informed members say no matter which way the senate goes, it will be no stronger than 18 to 16. This will be but a bare majority. In the house, however, 84 votes will be a majority, with 12 votes to spare.

The same measure will be up for consideration in the senate Thursday night, when the committee on criminal jurisprudence will listen to both sides of the county unit fight. In the senate it is expected the bill will be reported out with the recommendation that it be defeated. Then Senator Anderson Craig of Nodaway county is expected to make the same motion in the senate that Hay made in the house when the same committee in the lower branch reported to kill the bill last week, and which Hay prevented by his motion to place on the calendar.

TO HAVE BANQUET.

One to Be Tendered by the Prudential Insurance Company to the District Agents.

A banquet is to be given this evening at the Linville hotel by the Prudential insurance company of America to the district agents of that company in the Maryville district. Ed O'Donnell of this city is agency organizer, and the agents in the district are N. B. Thompson of this city, C. E. Nelson of Creston, Ia.; W. Edington of Shenandoah, Ia., and F. E. Bellus of Clarinda, Ia. Messrs. Nelson, Edington and Bellus are in the city to attend the banquet.

Mr. Meloth of Newark, N. J., from the main office of the Prudential insurance company, is in Maryville to attend the banquet, as is also E. Litz of Omaha, superintendent of the western district; Dr. J. A. Whitaker of St. Joseph, Dr. Aldrich of Shenandoah, Ia., and Dr. Meyers of Creston, Ia.

The menu for the banquet follows:

Blue Points on Half. Celery. Cream of Tomato Soup. Soup Sticks. Broiled White Fish, Butter Sauce. Sweet Breads. Roasted Squad with Currant Jelly. Chip Potatoes. Brown Sweet Potatoes. Wines. Waldorf Salad on Lettuce Leaf. Tutti Frutti Ice Cream. Assorted Cake. Salted Almonds. Coffee. Cigars.

Suing the Great Western.

A suit was filed Tuesday in the circuit clerk's office by W. E. Wiles, attorney for Hugh Thrasher against the Great Western Railroad company. According to the petition the plaintiff lost a 2-year-old gray mare, valued at $200, by the defendant's carelessness and negligence. Judgment for $400 is wanted by the plaintiff.

On Visit to Ottumwa.

Miss Nannie Pride left Wednesday for Ottumwa, Ia., for a visit with Mrs. Emma Guthrie and Mrs. Edith Smith.

THE MEN'S DINNER

TO BE GIVEN THURSDAY AT THE SOUTHERN METHODIST CHURCH.

IS FELLOWSHIP AFFAIR

And Many After-Dinner Speeches on That Subject Will Be Given—Dinner at 7:30.

Plates will be laid for not less than seventy-five men Thursday evening, February 6th, at the men's fellowship dinner to be given in the Sunday school room of the Southern Methodist church. The men are asked to gather in the main auditorium of the church at 7 p. m. The doors to the dining room will be opened about 7:30. Admission to the dining room will be by ticket. About half of the men who will sit down at the table will be the especially invited guests of the men of the church. The dinner will be prepared and served by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary society. As is to be expected at a Methodist gathering, the four courses to be served to the hungry seekers after fellowship will rest upon that unfailing source of gastronomic satisfaction known as "Circuit Rider's Delight." Upon this satisfying portion, which we add in this case will be baked, other artistic culinary creations will be placed until every diner can say with the negro boy eating watermelon, "I've had enough everywhere 'cept my mouth."

The dinner is one of the several methods to be used by the fellowship committee in drawing the members of the church and their friends closer together. They are acting on the theory that every man likes the glad hand, and encouraging word. The committee is going to be a center for the radiation of friendship and good cheer in the church and community. They will see that the sick are visited and the poor looked after. Strangers will be met and welcomed at the door of the church. Their idea is that the church can be made a brotherhood in fact as well as in name.

The after-dinner speakers and their subjects will be as follows:

"Making Strangers Feel at Home With Us," Floyd Brown.

"Fellowship in the Church a Means to Greater Power," Prof. V. I. Moore.

"Some of the Plans of the Fellowship Committee," J. H. Thorpe.

"The Fellowship Side of Christianity," Dr. H. K. Taylor.

"Standing Together," Rev. J. D. Randolph.

"Visiting the Sick," J. S. Muntz.

"The Young Men and Christian Fellowship," Glenn Lukins.

John Dawson and W. A. Blagg have been asked to speak to the men on some subject which may be suggested to them by the occasion.

Established New Road.

The application of George W. Thompson, W. A. Shelman and A. F. Florea and others for a new road in Union township, was granted by the county court Tuesday.

Charles H. Eaton returned to his home in Barnard Tuesday evening from a short visit with his daughters, Mrs. U. I. Willson and Mrs. Scribner Beech, Jr. Mr. Eaton was accompanied home by his granddaughter, Miss Ethel Willson.

The Uses of Danger.

In each one of us is hidden unconfessed desire for a "bigger time" than that which the average allotment brings. It is a craving for adventure and danger—for a rush of events in which the nerve centers shall come sharply to attention and then show a heightened activity. Most of us are buried like moles in routine and trivialities, and a catastrophe throws off the encumbering earth. Only a few times in many years does there enter a sense of the full being coming to focus; an external situation matching the listless desire of the inner mood. Once in a storm at sea the tail end of the Galveston hurricane, on an Allan liner half way home from Glasgow, the pitching of the vessel, the size of the green waves breaking over the deck, the touch of actual danger at the stern—all these exciting conditions of the stormy day conferred a sense of peace to the spirit. There was tension, to be sure, but there underlay the high wrought mood the assurance of everything slipping into its proper place, and all things working in easy effectiveness. At last that day had come for which everyone waits. For once there was no sense that only a small portion of self was in commission. Always before, in each single event and act, there had been left over unfunctioning fragments, like unemployed riotous troops. When that call comes which would release us and unlock the hidden powers, a certain few respond. An anonymous hero appears at almost every accident and then retires to his place in the great crowd. That is the spectacle of routine bravery at many points around the globe. The sentry on duty, the captain on the bridge, the fireman on the ladder, all go blithely to sure death rather than turn their faces away from the unseen leader. That presence keeps them loyal to the job when thick smoke and stormy waters and the wrath of men would turn them.—Collier's Weekly.

"What did the crowd do when you told them you had never paid a dollar for a vote?"
"A few cheered, but most of them seemed to lose interest."—Washington Star.

IN RACE FOR FIRST HONORS.

Normal Y. M. C. A. in Contest Conducted by State Y. M. C. A.

The Normal Y. M. C. A. is in the race again this year for first honors in the contest which is carried on each year by the state department of the Young Men's Christian association. The local school scored first last year. The object of the contest is to give the different chapters of the schools of the state an incentive for more active work. The percentage is based on the number of men enrolled, and attendance at meetings, size of Bible study class and number of men taking active work in the mission study class all go to make up the total score on which the standing of the schools are based.

The schools of the state are divided into sections, with the university and colleges in one section and the five normals in another. The contest closes the middle of March, and bi-weekly statements are sent out giving the standing of the schools. The last statement gives Cape Girardeau first place with the Northwest Normal a close second.

AIMED AT LEGAL PROCEDURE.

Measures Prepared by Committee of State Bar Association before the Legislature.

Never before in the history of Missouri, except in the framing of constitutions, have lawyers and litigants had as many measures tending to improvement of the code of procedure as are before the present legislature. The proposed changes come from the lawyers themselves, who through the Missouri State Bar Association, have prepared a series of nine bills, which have been presented by Senator Alroy S. Phillips of St. Louis.

The bills were worked out by a committee consisting of J. M. Johnson, Judge of the Kansas City Court of Appeals; P. Taylor Bryan of St. Louis and John D. Lawson, former dean of the law department of the University of Missouri, who studied judicial procedure in England as the representative of the American Bar Association. In brief, the purpose of the bills are:

First—To abolish delay in judicial procedure so that persons claiming right to relief may join as plaintiffs.
Second—Providing for the transfer of cases to the proper court where brought in the wrong tribunal.
Third—Requiring the filing of an answer not less than 15 nor more than 30 days from date of issue; requiring true answer or judgment to adverse party.

Fourth—Requiring all practice, pleadings and forms in civil actions in all courts of record to accord with the rules prescribed by the Supreme Court.

Fifth—Allowing the trial judge to comment on the evidence in civil cases in his instructions to the jury.

Sixth—Providing for prompt and efficient construction of and rights of persons interested in deeds, wills, contracts and other written instruments.

Seventh—Providing for the construction of a law after it is passed, but before it becomes operative.

Eighth—Limiting appeals to cases that involve an amount only in excess of $100.

Ninth—Substituting the words "transcript of oral proceedings" for "bill of exceptions."

One of the features of the bills is that six of the nine have titles which begin "an act to abolish delay in judicial procedure, while the remaining bills will constitute new sections to the statutes. The new bills are the fifth, sixth and seventh, as numbered, while the others are amendatory to the statutes already on the books or are additions to sections already there.

Senator Phillips who assisted the committee in working out the plan under which the bills were drafted, said the changes were radical. They follow the English system in that it is proposed to give the Supreme Court power to lay down the rules for the courts of record.

While the backers of the bills fear there is not a great chance to have the measures passed by the present legislature, they hope it can be done. At least they declare there will be great help in causing a study of the problems presented, and they believe that as soon as the people generally, as well as the lawyers, learn that the adoption of the nine bills means a simplification of judicial procedure and a great financial saving, they will make the necessary demand for the passage of the measures.

From the fact that the senate is generally regarded as the best and surest legal advisor in a legislative way on bills affecting the judicial system of the state, the lawyers interested in the measures hope to secure action at an early date. If the senate passes the bills, the backers of the measures believe the house can be persuaded to adopt them.

When in St. Joseph stop at Hotel Ryan (European), 313 South Sixth street. Steam heated. Rooms $5 cents to $10 per day.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Penelope Club to Meet Thursday Eve.
The Penelope club will meet this Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNeal. The husbands of the members of the club are to be the guests.

Miss Pauline Martin Ill.

Miss Pauline Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Raleigh Martin of St. Joseph, who has been a Smith college girl since last September, is ill of nervous exhaustion at a sanitarium in Springfield, Mass. Her mother will go to Springfield and bring her home as soon as she is able to travel.

Successful Social.

The social and card party in St. Mary's church hall Tuesday evening was well attended and quite a success. The lady's prize was won by Miss Alice Protzman and the gentleman's prize by Bert Hiatt. During the luncheon and before the games began several numbers were given by Rev. Fr. Willebrode on his victrola.

Indoor Track Meet.

The Young People's club of the Presbyterian church are looking forward to an evening of fun. They have planned to have an indoor track meet in the Sunday school rooms of the church tomorrow evening. The take-offs on various athletic events promise to manufacture a continuous laugh. Refreshments will be served after the track meet. All the young people of the church and congregation are invited.

For Mrs. Herbert H. Smith.

Mrs. George R. Eaton gave a delightful progressive domino party Tuesday afternoon to forty-five guests at her home in the Graves flats, a compliment to Mrs. Herbert H. Smith, the wife of Dr. H. H. Smith, who has recently located in our city. The hostess was assisted in entertaining and serving by the honor guest and Miss Lenore Schumacher and Miss Rose Schumacher. The game prize went to Mrs. T. L. Wadley. The luncheon consisted of chicken salad, sandwiches, olives, cheese straws, ices and coffee.

The Newlyweds Played Whist.

The Newlyweds Embroidery club and its husbands were entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Jesse Paullette with progressive whist. The decorations and luncheon were in red and white and suggestive of St. Valentine's day. Several piano numbers were given by Mrs. Leo Butler. There were three guests, Mrs. W. R. Hall of Kansas City, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Moyer; Mrs. Ida McKenzie, mother of the hostess, and Miss Louise Williams. The club members and their husbands present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harbison, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reavis.

M. I. Circle at Elks Club.

Mrs. J. F. Cook was hostess to the M. I. Circle in the tea rooms of the Elks club Tuesday afternoon. The devotions were led by Mrs. F. M. Martin. The roll call of current events was unusually interesting. One response was from Mrs. W. R. Wells, who is on leave of absence from the Circle, and is spending the winter in California with her family. Mrs. Wells' letter was very entertaining, beside the current events in California of which she wrote. Two excellent papers were given, one on "A Trip Through Italy," by Mrs. W. O. Garrett, and the other by Mrs. Omar Catterton on "Some Treasures of the Vatican." There was a good attendance of the membership and one new member was added, Mrs. Halbert Catterton. The next meeting of the Circle will be its midwinter social event, on Tuesday evening, February 18, at the home of Mrs. Charles McNeal. The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Mrs. W. B. Christy, Mrs. I. W. Nixon and Mrs. A. C. Hopkins.

Studied Home Economics.

A social function, a number ill, and several out of town decreased a bit the attendance at the meeting of the Economics department of the Twentieth Century club on Tuesday, but those who were there were repaid for their effort by an excellent program.

Most housewives, when they open factory canned vegetables only think, perhaps, of their rich color and whole appearance. That this is brought about by borax, boracic acid and benzoate of soda, all of which are extremely injurious was shown by Mrs. J. C. Allender under the subject "The Dangerous Use of Preserving Powders in Home and Factory Canning." What it takes to be efficient socially, and the kind of a financial basis required to go with it was cleverly demonstrated by Mrs. S. D. Harkness in "Social Efficiency, and Can a $1,200 Income Bring Social Efficiency?" Her reasoning was not mere theorizing but facts indisputably given. It is almost appalling to know that three-fourths of the male wage earners and nineteen-twentieths of the female wage earners earn and live on less than $36 a year.

A well regulated home demands an adequate sum to be cheerfully given by the masculine wage earner and a judicious spending thereof by his helpmeet. To pay as one goes, not when life's needs are eaten up or worn out was the sentiment of Mrs. G. B. Roseberry's sensible paper on "Division of Income for Life's Necessities."

Married at Minister's Home.

Mr. Everett V. Cook and Miss Maggie Amy Owens of Skidmore were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Lee Harrel of the First Baptist church of this city. The bridal couple was accompanied by several relatives. The bridegroom is a nephew of James F. Cook of this city.

GUILFORD.

A debate on the immortal question of "Woman's Suffrage" was held at the Guilford school house Tuesday night, resulting in favor of suffrage for women. Every fence post in that neighborhood was posted Wednesday with signs "Votes for Women."

S. P. Curnutt has bought the R. P. Nelson farm, four miles northwest of Guilford, and will take possession March 1.

Glen Lincoln of Barnard has leased the William Kent farm, three miles southwest of Guilford, and will take possession March 1.

Paul Winters has leased the old Davis farm, owned by Jacob Breit, and will take possession March 1.

W. G. Oliver, the Maryville monument man, was in Guilford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis O. Thompson, living three miles southeast of Guilford, announce the birth of an eleven-pound son on Wednesday, February 5. Mrs. Brown is at the home of her parents at Helena, Mo., for which place Mr. Brown left Wednesday morning with their household goods, where they will make their future home.

Over $18,000 for Farm.

A big land deal was consummated Monday when T. E. Archer, living two and a half miles west of Old Conception, bought the 170-acre farm known as the Willits farm, three miles northeast of Stanberry, for $195 an acre. Mr. Archer's son, Dan Archer, will take possession of the farm March 1. Mr. Archer and his son recently sold their 120-acre farm, nine miles southeast of Clyde, to Bert Rimel for $85 an acre, and will give possession March 1.

Death of Mrs. Nannie Biggs.

Mrs. Nannie Biggs, living near Burlington Junction, died at 9:15 o'clock Tuesday night, after a year's illness. The funeral services will take place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at Burlington Junction. Mrs. Biggs was 65 years of age. She is survived by two daughters, Miss Fern Biggs, at home, and Mrs. Charles Griffey of Burlington Junction, and a son, Leslie Biggs of Mound City. A sister, Mrs. Levi Wallace of near Elmo, also survives.

Received Good Price on Market.

Pete Myers, a farmer living near Maryville, took ninety-nine head of hogs to market Monday and received $7.65. The average weight was 185 pounds. Mr. Myers topped the morning market. Frank Mercer also had twenty-eight head of helters on the market at South St. Joseph Monday, receiving $6.85.

He Was a Gentleman.

A Euclid Heights car—one of those horrible ones where you have to sit with your feet in the aisle—was lumbering along Euclid avenue yesterday afternoon, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. A very handsome and polite young man entered at East Thirtieth street. The only possible place to sit down was at the side of a broad lady who was trying to occupy a whole section.

"I beg your pardon," smiled the young man; "is this seat occupied?"
"Yes, sir," answered the wide lady, with a baby stare. "I am keeping it for a gentleman."

"That's me," grinned the young man, sliding into the seat. "How did you know what I was?"

A Use for It.

"At last some of the old medicine that mother has been saving for years and years comes in handy."

"How now?"
"These pills just fit Tommy's air rifle."

A marriage license was issued Wednesday by Recorder Wray to Everett V. Cook and Maggie Amy Owens of Skidmore.

What the Kettle Sings.

I love to hear the kettle sing
In the winter when the wind is blowing,
Somehow it makes me think of spring,
Though it is snowing.

A little sort of chirp comes first.
And then a gentle drowsy humming,
That seems to say, "We're through the worst!"

Yes, spring is coming!"

I know quite well, outside the room,
What isn't snowy must be icy,
And yet I dream of fruit and bloom
In islands spicy—

And little running, laughing streams,
And dear green woods, with vines and mosses,
And sunny places full of gleams,
When the wind tosses.

The leafy branches all about
Make just another sort of singing;
And little flurry things come out,
Leaping and springing.

And always, when I get to this,
And feel a sort of pleasant creep,
My mother takes me with a kiss,
And "Oh, how sleepy!"

—Margaret Vandergrift.

MOTHER! WATCH THE CHILDREN'S BOWELS.

If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Bilious or Tongue is Coated Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.—Advertisement.

FARRELL HELD ON MURDER CHARGE BULGARS RETIRE FROM TCHATALJA

Janitor's Confession Solves Ottoman's Think Move is Made to Deceive Opponents.

MACHINE SENT TO ROSALSKY. GRAND VIZIER ALREADY BUSY

Man Mentally Unbalanced Possesses Ability to Make Bombs and Settles All His Grievances by Murder. Woman Killed Sunday Night.

New York, Feb. 5.—John Paul Farrell, a discharged apartment house janitor, confessed that he had killed Mrs. Bernard Herrera Sunday night by means of a bomb that he had made and that by similar means he had caused the death of Mrs. Helen Taylor a year ago and attempted the life of Judge Otto A. Rosalsky of the court of general sessions last March.

Farrell was held on a charge of murder for the killing of Mrs. Herrera. Although the police are convinced the man is mentally unbalanced, Deputy Commissioner Dougherty said detectives he had sent out in numbers to investigate the case have learned enough to lead them to believe Farrell's startling story is true in the essentials, though false in many details.

Every time Farrell had a grievance, he seems to have settled the business with a bomb. The trouble with Mrs. Herrera, he said, was that she "fired" him from his job as janitor and hired a negro in his place. He wanted to get Judge Rosalsky out of the way because the jurist had sentenced Joseph Harvey, a "pal," to serve thirty-nine years in Sing Sing for stealing $16 worth of jewelry. Farrell told the police he helped Harvey rob Peter Johnson's home in the Bronx in 1908, but easily escaped.

No Motive for One Murder.

Why Farrell wanted to kill the Taylor woman—sometimes known as Grace Walker—was more than the police could fathom. Early in his story Farrell said she was his daughter and he slew her because she had gone wrong. Later he denied this and said she was an intimate friend, but gave no reason for killing her. He also told Dougherty why and by whom "Kid" Walker was shot in 1887 on the Bowery. He said Walker betrayed the Taylor woman and a man named Lestrangle killed him in revenge.

Having disposed of the bomb mysteries, Farrell confessed, the police assert, to having perpetrated a series of robberies in Brooklyn and the robbery of the Johnson home. Harvey and Harry Hartman, his companions in the latter exploit, were sentenced to Sing Sing for thirty-nine years and nine years respectively. Farrell never had been suspected of complicity in the crimes.

Dougherty said Farrell had served ten years in the New Jersey penitentiary for burglary and other crimes.

MURDER IN POLITICAL ROW

Kansas Detective in Republican-Socialist Contests Slain Near Dunkirk.

Pittsburg, Kan., Feb. 5.—Miss Emma Stanton, cashier in a store at Dunkirk, saw a form lying on the ground almost concealed by the heavy snow a short distance from Dunkirk. An investigation disclosed the body of Sam Reed of Pittsburg, interpreter for the contest courts in the recent Republican-Socialist hearings at Girard. He had been shot six times.

In the gathering of evidence for use in the contest hearings Reed acted as a detective as well as one of the official interpreters when the hearings were held.

For his part in the work he was threatened with death. It was alleged in the contest proceedings that many foreigners had been allowed to vote who were not citizens. Many foreigners were brought into court and it is said that the plot to kill Reed assumed shape there.

Withdraws Charges Against Senators.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Investigation of charges of corrupt practices in the election of Senators Watson and Chilton of West Virginia was halted when the senate committee on elections received a letter from L. G. Shock, a member of the West Virginia house of delegates, in which he withdrew statements upon which Governor Glasscock and other West Virginians petitioned the senate to investigate.

Body Found at Foot of Cliff.

Cleveland, Feb. 5.—The body of S. Homer Everett, the young society, club and business man, who mysteriously disappeared Saturday night, was found on the lake shore in Lakewood, at the foot of a high cliff. It is believed that Everett, when taken sick at a house warming, wandered out in a daze and fell over the cliff.

Ban on Dresses With Buttons at Back.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 5.—A bill was introduced in the legislature prohibiting women from wearing dresses that button up the back unless the buttons be as large as a dollar. The bill provides for a fine of $1 to $3, with a jail sentence for persistent offenders.

Turkey Confident New Leaders Will Surprise Balkan Allies—Adrianople Fortress Expected to Hold Out for Long Time Despite Contrary Reports

Constantinople, Feb. 5.—The Bulgarians, according to reports received here, are retiring from the burning village of Tchatalja, especially on the left wing. This is regarded as a strategic move, possibly with the idea of drawing the Turks into taking the offensive.

The belief is held among military experts here that no serious operations are to be expected at Tchatalja for the present. The condition of the southern portion of the zone between the lines of the belligerents is such as to render the movement of men impossible. It is little better than a morass. Only on the higher ground in the northern region can the armies come into contact, and it seems improbable that either side will venture an attack in force. It is supposed that the Bulgarians denounced the armistice less on account of the failure of the negotiations than because they expected Adrianople would be obliged to surrender within a few days, and an armistice still in operation might have embarrassed their liberty of action.

Fortress May Hold Out.

According to the best information here the fortress will be able to resist for a long time. Much is expected by competent observers of the new blood which is now at the head of both Turkish military and civil administrations, burning to avenge the earlier defeats, and the enterprise of the daring men like Enver Bey, now for the first time given a chance, it is believed, may surprise the allies.

The new grand vizier, Mahmud Scheffet Pasha, is already showing the organizing qualities which won him renown and gives many hours a day to superintending in person the military arrangements.

NAPLES SCENE OF BATTLE

Rioting Occurs as Result of Public Protest Against Taxes.

Naples, Feb. 5.—A hundred persons, ringleaders of a riot here, are now under arrest, while a force of troops occupies the entire city hall square to suppress any attempt made to attack the municipal structure.

The arrests were the outgrowth of public clamor against taxes. A meeting of protest was held, at which a strike of twenty-four hours was proclaimed against the proposed extension of the limits of the city for the purpose of enforcing the municipal tax on foodstuffs.

Speeches of a violent nature were made at the meeting, which drew a large crowd and also a large number of thugs. The latter are blamed for most of the trouble.

When the meeting had adjourned the mob, headed by the lower element, started to march on the city hall building, but en route collided with a strong force of police. The policemen were overwhelmed, and reinforcements of cavalry were called out. The cavalry charged upon the crowd, but its efforts were in vain. The mob tore up the pavements and hurled large pieces of stone and broken bottles at the police and troops.

The commander of the cavalry then ordered his men to draw their sabers. Another charge was made and the mob was dispersed.

Apparatus to Capsize Airship.

Paris, Feb. 5.—An apparatus which, it is claimed, will cause an aeroplane of any type to capsize in the air is being investigated by General Hirschauer of the flying corps of the French army. It is claimed that the apparatus, which is light and simple and can be carried in a soldier's knapsack, will provoke atmospheric disturbances sufficiently heavy to affect any aeroplane flying lower than 2,000 feet. It is thought the invention, if proven practicable, might have a serious bearing on the value of the aeroplane in war.

Aids Starving Coal Miners.

Decorat, Ill., Feb. 5.—Cold and starving coal miners in Blue Mound have been temporarily relieved by an emergency donation of $750 from the state organization of United Mine Workers. The money was distributed to seventy-five families. The distress among the miners has been caused by the failure of the Austin Coal company and the miners' inability to collect $11,000 in wages due them. The number of men affected is 142.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Lies in That Cough and Weak, Worn Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Crabb of Strasburg, Va., says: "Grippe left me weak, run-down and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Says a Girl Should Not Take a Boy's Arm.

In the "Home Problem" department of the February Woman's Home Companion appears the following letter:

"I am eighteen years old and about to enter society. I am a little uncertain what to do in regard to gentlemen friends. Should I take a gentleman's arm when he is my escort in the evening? Ought I to thank him for civilities, and may I accept presents?"

The following answer to the question raised is made by the editor of the department:

"In the first place, my dear child do not use the expression 'gentleman friends.' Neither 'gentleman friends' nor 'lady friends' belong to good form in common conversation. I would have you speak at the right time of the gentleman and the lady, but when you are talking of them socially it is better to say 'man friend' and 'woman friend.' You are not to take a man's arm when walking with him, nor on the other hand, is he to take yours. A man may give his arm to a woman who is crippled, infirm, blind, or aged. A young woman stands and walks without assistance. Make it a rule always to thank everybody, men and women alike, if they show you politeness or render assistance. Do not accept costly presents from a man who is neither your brother nor your fiancé. The man who is your escort may send you flowers. An intimate friend may bring you bonbons or present you with a book."

BEACH ASSAULT TRIAL BEGINS

New York Millionaire Charged With Slabbing Wife.

JURY SECURED IN SHORT TIME

Defendant and Wife Deny Charge and Say Crime Was Committed by Negro—Four Witnesses Tell of Hearing Screams.

Aiken, S. C., Feb. 5.—Taking of testimony in the trial of Frederick O. Beach, a New York millionaire, charged with assault on his wife with intent to kill, was started in the Aiken county court. The jury was secured in twenty-two minutes. Only a few of the members of the wealthy winter colony appeared in the court room.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach sat together and heard the prosecuting attorney attempt to prove to a jury of countrymen that the New York society man had made a murderous attack on his wife with a penknife in Aiken last winter.

Eleven witnesses were called by the state and a slow start was made in their examination. Prosecutor Gunter directed his efforts to attacking the story told by Beach and substantiated by his wife, to the effect that Mrs. Beach had been attacked by a negro when she left the house to give her dogs an airing.

Not one witness whose evidence consumed the trial's first day would give details of the assault.

Four members of the Weman family, living across the street, told of a series of screams from the different parts of the Beach premises about 9:30 on the night of Feb. 26. Two of them testified that the dying echo of the last scream was quickly followed by loud rapping on a door and the sound of a man's voice exclaiming: "This is Beach, let me in."

DARROW TRIAL RESUMED

Mrs. Bain Tells of Asking Husband to Accept Bribe.

Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—The direct examination of Mrs. Robert F. Bain, wife of the McNamara juror Clarence S. Darrow is accused of having bribed, was concluded when the attorney's trial was resumed. Mrs. Bain was so overcome by emotion that a short recess was called to permit her to regain her composure. Afterwards she told of having used her influence on her husband to induce him to accept bribe money from Bert H. Franklin, a detective employed by Darrow when he was chief counsel for the McNamara brothers.

Subway Contract Enjoined.

New York, Feb. 5.—Thirty minutes before the public service commission was to have met to sign the operating contracts for New York's new $300,000,000 subway an injunction was served, prohibiting the commission from taking action. The injunction was obtained by Clarence J. Hearn, counsel for William Randolph Hearst. Hearst has been fighting for a municipal operating plan.

SOCIETY WOMEN AS PICKETS

Warned by Boston Strike Leaders Not to Resort to Violence.

Boston, Feb. 5.—Several society women joined the hands of strikers in picketing the forty shops affected by the walkout of 5,000 garment workers to enforce demands for an increase in wages and better working conditions. The women pickets were warned by the strike leaders not to resort to violence.

BLOCK CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS

Democrats in Senate Break Quorum in Executive Session.

Washington, Feb. 5.—After several ineffectual attempts to secure consideration of President Taft's appointments the senate Republicans succeeded finally in forcing an executive session. Democrats opposed the motion and were joined by Senator La Follette.

The Democratic filibuster to prevent any action was resumed as soon as the doors were closed. With appointments sent to the senate during the last two weeks the total number now pending is nearly 1,800, involving practically all appointments made by President Taft since the beginning of the session in December. The fight came to a halt when Democrats succeeded in forcing the senate to adjourn. Democrats absented themselves from the chamber as soon as the executive session began. It was found impossible to get a quorum.

MERCHANT MUST PAY FOR AD

Missouri Blue Law Cannot Be Used to Evade Bill.

St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The St. Louis court of appeals refused to apply the Missouri "blue law" to save a local merchant from paying for an advertisement in a Sunday newspaper.

The merchant sought exemption from the debt on the plea that the publication of a newspaper on Sunday was a violation of the Sunday law.

The court of appeals ruled that as the merchant was a party to the contract for publication of his advertisement on Sunday he could not invoke the Sunday law to secure release from payment.

A similar case before the Kansas City court of appeals was decided in a similar manner and the matter now will be taken to the state supreme court for determination.

Part of Train Lost in Tunnel.

St. Louis, Feb. 5.—Baltimore and Ohio westbound train No. 3, known as the St. Louis express, broke in two in the tunnel under the business district of the city and for an hour three sleeping cars attached to the rear of the train were lost. The absence of the train pulled into the station. They were found in the tunnel a short distance from the western entrance to the bridge.

Two Trainmen Killed in Wreck. Sedalia, Mo., Feb. 5.—Joseph C. Altemueller, engineer, and Patrick Curran, conductor, were killed when a southbound mixed train on the Missouri Pacific railway was wrecked on a curve near Coal Camp, twenty miles south of here. The engine and two cars rolled down an embankment.

Brother of W. A. Paxton Dead.

Montgomery, Mo., Feb. 5.—Preston Paxton, a well known citizen here, brother of the late millionaire cattleman, William Paxton of Omaha, died after an illness of several months, which affected his mind. He was seventy-three years of age.

GAS, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION VANISH.

As Soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" Gets in Stomach All Distress Is Gone.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's, Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul, tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.—Advertisement.

Here From Lincoln.

Mrs. John Swann of Lincoln, Neb., is in Maryville with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Finn of Denver, Col., who was called to Maryville last week to the bedside of her husband, the late Dr. W. B. Finn. Mrs. Finn and her son and daughter will accompany Mrs. Swann to her home in Lincoln to remain for awhile.

THE ASTONISHING IMPRESSION

That a Country Preacher Made Several Small Boys.

David Grayson, writing one of his new "Adventures in Contentment," in the February American Magazine, tells about being out-of-doors on a warm spring Sunday with several small boys when the village preacher came along. He goes on to say:

"I don't know what might have happened, had we not been interrupted by the appearance of a Specter in Black. It appeared before us there in the broad daylight in the middle of a sunny afternoon while we were playing 'Yankee Doodle.' First I saw the top of a black hat rising over the rim of the hill. This was followed quickly by a black tie, a long black coat, black trousers, and, finally, black shoes. I admit I was shaken, but being a person of iron nerve in facing such phenomena I continued to play 'Yankee Doodle.' In spite of this counter-attraction, toward which all four boys turned uneasy glances, I held my audience. The Black Specter, with a black book under its arm, drew nearer. Still I continued to play and nod my head and tap my toe. I felt like some modern Pied Piper piping away the children of these modern hills—piping them away from older people who could not understand them."

"I could see an accusing look on the Specter's face. I don't know what put it into my head, and I had no sooner said it than I was sorry for my levity, but the figure with the sad garments there in the matchless and triumphant spring day affected me with a curious sharp impatience. Had anyone the right to look out so dolefully upon such a day and such a scene of simple happiness as this? So I took my whistle from my lips and asked:

"Is God dead?"

"I shall never forget the indescribable look of horror and astonishment that swept over the young man's face. 'What do you mean, sir?' he asked with an air of stern authority which surprised me. His calling for the moment lifted him above himself: it was the church which spoke!"

"I was on my feet in an instant, regretting the pain I had given him; and yet it seemed worth while now, having made my inadvertent remark, to show him frankly what lay in my mind. Such things sometimes help men."

"I meant no offense, sir," I said, 'and I apologize for my flummery, but when I saw you coming up the hill looking so gloomy and disconsolate on this bright day, as though you disapproved of God's world, the question slipped out before I knew it.'"

No More Dandruff, Falling Hair, Gray Hair.

Men and women—do you want a splendid head of luxuriant hair free from scalp itch and dandruff? Do you want hair so bewitchingly radiant that it compels the admiration of all who see it?

FAME IS SHORT LIVED

Congress, Working Overtime on Merit Services, Can Secure Attendance of a Dozen.

(By VanCleave.)

Washington, D. C., February 3.—Everything in Washington now is being made ready for the change in administration scheduled for March 4th. President Taft looks from the front window of the White House out upon Laayette park and watches the workmen building reviewing stands with a sense of grim satisfaction. It is not his old enemy Theodore. The inaugural committee is busy arranging the details of the inaugural celebration, and the suffragettes are busier than a bunch of hens in a new-mad-arden getting ready for their big parade March 3. Almost every window p Pennsylvania avenue has a big sign announcing "windows for rent for the inauguration." The price is $5 per day, and there are no trees near. Boarding house keepers are looking forward with delight to their great quadrennial arrest, and those who expect to attend the ceremonies would do well to engage rooms at once. They may have trouble later on. Don't let the price frighten you. It will be a plenty, but from present indications it will be a question of getting into respectable quarters at any price.

The suffragettes have been fighting
ard for their "rights" and have succeeded in getting about all they want so far, and their demonstration bids it to be an important feature of the week's festivities. All Missourians will be urged to save their biggest cheers for the ladies band of Maryville.

The present session of congress has been a strenuous one in both senate and house. The outgoing administration is anxious to close up many unfinished projects and to appoint all remaining Republicans to office, the house has all the big appropriations to prepare and put through in order to stop the wheels of government in motion and the senate had the impeachment of Judge Archbald and many important bills to consider left over from last session. The close of this session, March 4, will end this congress, and on all unfinished legislation must be given over again.

The trial of Judge Archbald of Pennsylvania resulted in a conviction, the third time a federal judge has been so prived of his office and honor since the foundation of our government. The case, in fact, is without parallel, for the case of Judge John Pickering of New Hampshire, the incumbent's reign had been dethroned, and in the last case, Judge West H. Humphries of Tennessee had allied himself with the confederacy. Judge Archbald's dishonesty could hardly have been more severe, as he was not only removed from an office paying $10,000 a year, presumably for life, but he also barred from ever holding any office of trust, honor or emolument
under the United States government.
His indiscretions amounted, in the eyes of the senate, to "high crimes and misdemeanors," and the penalty he died is a solemn warning that commercialism in office and profit madness, the great contagious ailment of our age, must be checked if not cured.
The decision also shows that the old method of recall has not lost its vire.

The senate has just voted its approval of a presidential term of six years and of making all who have served as president ineligible to further service. Whether it will get rough the house in the short time remaining it is impossible to say, although it will have many strong supporters in the house. Limiting the resident to one term is one point on which the friends of Champ Clark and William J. Bryan may agree cordially.
The claims bill, allowing many old claims for property destroyed during the civil war, and of interest in Missouri, has passed the senate, but in such a way that it is some distance yet from the White House. The house passed the bill last summer allowing certain claims. The senate struck out

Best Postcards
1 cent each at Crane's practically all the house bill and inserted other claims instead. This means that the bill will die or that both senate and house will get what they want in conference.

The immigration bill is also nearing the point of becoming law unless vetoed by the president. It is an admirable bill in many respects, but contains some features that caused a determined opposition. The immigration matter has presented one of the knottiest problems the congress has had to deal with. That the present laws are badly in need of revision is admitted by all, but upon what basis to exclude immigrants, what test to apply in determining the desirable and the undesirable and how to do this with justice and fairness toward all has been a source of much study and contention. Under the bill just passed by both house and senate an educational test will be applied. Applicants for admission into this country will be required to read in English or in the language of their own country.

The house is not only meeting every day and frequently running into the night, but every Sunday up to the 2d day of March has already been set apart for "addresses on the life, character and public services" of various deceased members of the house and senate. The custom of utilizing Sundays for this purpose is largely peculiar to this congress. In former days, when congress held short sessions and often adjourned from Thursday or Friday until Monday, it was easy to work in a vacant week day to pay tribute to their departed fellows, but the strenuous democracy now in charge finds six days per week insufficient for their needs. This much to the disgust of a number of employees who are required to be on hand, although most of the members are not.

These days also suggest the emptiness of momentary honor and fame.
Great is man in his day of power, but how soon forgotten. Last Sunday eleven members, ten visitors in the galleries and twenty-five or thirty employees assembled to hear and make addresses and do honor to the memory of former Representative Foster of Vermont. Mr. Foster was one of the leading members of the house. A year ago the house met on a similar occasion to do honor to the memory of Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia. Here was a man whose name a year previous was known in every county in the United States. He had accumulated a fortune of thirty millions of dollars and for many years was a powerful factor in the United States senate. He passed to his final reward, and in due season some member from his state introduced the customary resolution to meet and honor his memory. Not more than a dozen responded. His immediate family were in the gallery, but the thousands who a few months before were hanging to his coat tails and groveling at his feet had forgotten him helpless and powerless in his tomb. Such is life. And that is what all are striving and straining their energies to attain—position, standing and power, an empty nothingness, that vaporizes into thin air when the hand is off the throttle.

MEETINGS CLOSE THURSDAY.

Pickering Revival at the M. E. Church
Will Have Big Closing Services—
Rev. Cox Will Preach.

The revival meeting that has been in progress several weeks at the Pickering Methodist church under the ministry of the pastor, Rev. H. J. Dueker, will close Thursday night.
Thursday will be made a red letter day and will be made of especial interest to young people. Rev. Gilbert S.
Cox of the M. E. church of Maryville will occupy the pulpit at the evening service and will sing a solo. The choir will also sing special music. The entire day will be observed as a day of prayer.

There have been fourteen additions to the church since the meetings began. Rev. C. H. Sauceman of Skidmore, who has had charge of the singing during the greater part of the meetings, was unable to attend this week.

Miss Hise is Improving.

According to the News-Press, Miss Eliza Hise, the school teacher of Quitman who was accidentally shot in the ankle by her cousin two weeks ago, and was taken to St. Joseph to the Ensworth hospital, is improving. Her physician says no operation will be necessary and that she will not lose her foot.

Left for South Bend.

Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Anthony left Tuesday evening for South Bend, Ind., where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Anthony's mother, Mrs. W. G.
Mather. They will return in a few days.

FOR COURSE WEEK

GRAY'S SALE PAVILION TO BE USED AND WILL BE HEATED.

LECTURE EACH EVENING

Will Be Had and Committee Working to Secure Notable Men—Work Promises to Be Big One.

The Gray sale pavilion will be used next week for the demonstration work of the short course week to be given by the State College of Agriculture under the direction of the Normal. The pavilion will be heated so that all may enjoy the judging of the live stock in comfort. The best stock around Maryville will be used for this purpose.
The committee in charge are also trying to arrange for evening lectures during the course next week. They have sent for P. G. Holden of Iowa,
S. M. Jordan of Pettis county, Dr. W.
A. Whitten, state horticulturist, and T. E. Quisenberry, superintendent of the poultry station at Mt. Grove, Mo.
Mr. Holden, Iowa's famous corn man, will be unable to come as he has engagements at other places for the week. The others, however, will probably be here, and the committee will get busy at once to engage a man for the fourth evening's lecture.

The short course week promises to be largely attended by the farmers of this county and also by many from neighboring counties.

The State Agricultural college will have their best men here and lectures will be given on subjects of farm life and problems. It will pay any farmer to attend this course.

WITH WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY.

Miss Zila Robbins, Formerly of Maryville and a High School Graduate Here With St. Louis School.

The following is from Tuesday's St.
Louis Republic about Miss Zila Robbins, who is well known in Maryville, having graduated from the high school here:

An unusual honor has been bestowed upon Miss Zila Robbins, daughter of Rev. Dr. Grant A. Robbins, pastor of the Union Methodist Episcopal church. She has been appointed assistant to Dr. Roland G. Usher, associate professor of history at Washington university.

She will begin her duties the first of this semester. Her duties will be confined mainly to assisting in the correcting of papers.

Miss Robbins is a graduate of the Maryville high school and Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia. She taught a year at Epworth seminary, Epworth, Ia. She received a medal in American history from the Sons of the American Revolution of Iowa.

This year she is taking a graduate course in history and English at the university and expects to get her master's degree in a year.

MAD DOG RUNNING AT LARGE!

Dog Thought to Have Rabies Couldn't Be Located Wednesday.

It is thought that a dog is running at large in the city that is mad. It is D. T. Littler's white silk poodle that was brought to Maryville by Mr. Litter from Tulsa, Okla. The dog got loose Tuesday evening and no trace was found of him on Wednesday.

The dog bit the hand of Mr. Littler's little daughter, Leona, on Tuesday, and while the bite is not painful and the wound did not bleed, Mr. Littler took her to a physician here this afternoon and the Pasteur treatment commenced.

Mr. Littler and his family came to Maryville this week from Tulsa, Okla.
and are at the home of Mrs. Littler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Burman, on East Third street.

If the dog is found by anyone the owner would like to have him returned to him, as a thorough examination will be made to see if the dog has rabies.

The temperature this morning by the government thermometer was four above zero.

LIVING HAPPILY

SUSIE McLAUGHLIN SMITH AND HER HUSBAND ARE CONTENTED.

A POOR FARM ROMANCE

Husband Writes Letter to Supt. Brummitt and Explained Visit of Susie to Maryville.

According to a letter Superintendent
R. G. Brummitt of the county farm received Tuesday from W. F. Smith, he and his bride of three weeks ago are living happily at their home near Savannah. Mr. Smith married Susie Mc-Laughlin, an inmate of the county poor farm here, on Monday, January 13, in Maryville.

Susie McLaughlin Smith returned to Maryville last Wednesday, and it was then thought by the Superintendent and a few others who talked to the girl, that Cupid had handed her a lemon and that her husband had forsaken her. She came up here at that time for her trunk, and she said she had just enough money to get here, and this fact made some of them believed that her husband did not want her back again. But such is not the case, according to the letter received.
Her husband said that she came up here for her trunk and that she had $5, but she lost the money somewhere.
Money was given to her to return to St. Joseph by Mr. Brummitt.

Susie got her trunk here, but she lost it and don't know where it is.

The following is the letter Superintendent Brummitt received, which is dated Savannah, Mo., rural route No. 6, February 3, 1913:

"Mr. Brummitt: Dear Sir—This leaves us all well. Susie and the girls are at home happy. Mr. Brummitt, I sent Susie up to Maryville last Wednesday to give you $3 on check, which I gave you. My boy had used the money that I told him to deposit Monday when we were married, but he didn't go to town, so I didn't know any different for a week, and I also paid her fare up there and gave her $5 besides the $3 for you, and she has lost it all, and she has had quite a time to get back. She don't know where her trunk is. Please advise us about it.
Address W. F. Smith."

TWO SHOPS CONSOLIDATED.

Plumbing Companies Are Now Under the Name of the Standard.

A deal was closed Wednesday by which the Maryville Plumbing company was consolidated with the Standard Plumbing company under the name of the Standard. The two shops will be combined at the present place of business of the Standard on South Main street, which is to be remodeled and fixed up into a first class plumb-ing shop, equal the new proprietors say, to any in the cities.

A model bath room will be fully equipped with the latest fixtures, as will also a model kitchen. Heating plants of two or three different kinds will be installed in the show room, so that practical demonstrations of the latest apparatus for this purpose can be fully demonstrated.

The proprietors say that with one large plumbing establishment far better service can be rendered at even less expense than with two, and that with the larger plant far better assortments of fixtures can be carried.

Felix Grundy, for many years in the plumbing business here, retires from the firm. Mr. Grundy has not taken an active interest in the business for some time. The new company will be composed of Roy E. Martin and L. D.
Hollowell, both of whom are well known here and should make a great success working together.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

Y. W. C. A. of Normal Selected Miss
Mattie Simmons as President.

The Young Women's Christian association of the Normal elected the following officers Tuesday morning for the next school semester:

President—Mattie Simmons.
Vice president—Grace De Motte.
Secretary—Frances Rickenbrode.
Treasurer—Vivian Seat.
Miss Laura Ozzenberger, the former president of the association, has been a most satisfactory official and the Y. W. has flourished under her jurisdiction.

Arkansas Visitors Here.

James Hays and Mrs. George Hays of Rogers, Ark., and Mrs. M. E. Steen of St. Joseph were Maryville business visitors Wednesday.

DRY-WET FIGHT.

County Unit Local Option Bill Up
Thursday at Jefferson City.

Jefferson City, Feb. 4.—The present week promises to be the most interesting, so far of the legislature. The so-called county unit bills probably will be reached in both houses so that there will be a distinct line-up on the liquor question. Last Friday the house showed tendencies of dryness, but the senate is expected to show a tendency the other way.

Not satisfied with the fact that the drys have forced the county unit bill on the calendar in spite of an adverse committee report, the opposition will renew the fight on the measure at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. This is the time agreed upon between the advocates and the opposition for consideration of the bill, which provides that counties voting on local option shall vote on the question irrespective of the size of the towns within the county.

The question came up when Representative Hay of Callaway county explained the purpose of the bill that had been placed on the calendar last week.
Representative E. C. Orr, Democratic floor leader, at that time explained his opposition, but there was no indication of the radical difference between the two leaders when the measure was made a special order. Hay made the proposition, and Orr at once approved the plan that enables the two sides to discuss the merits of the question involved.

From the fact that there are reputed to be eighty-four dry members in the house it is accepted that there will be no trouble in passing the bill at least through the lower branch of the general assembly. But there is greater doubt as to the action of the senate.
There, if anything, those opposing the drys, or the wets, will have a better chance, although it is not certain what the senate will do.

The better informed members say no matter which way the senate goes, it will be no stronger than 18 to 16. This will be but a bare majority. In the house, however, 84 votes will be a majority, with 72 votes to spare.

The same measure will be up for consideration in the senate Thursday night, when the committee on criminal jurisprudence will listen to both sides of the county unit fight. In the senate it is expected the bill will be reported out with the recommendation that it be defeated. Then Senator Anderson Craig of Nodaway county is expected to make the same motion in the senate that Hay made in the house when the same committee in the lower branch reported to kill the bill last week, and which Hay prevented by his motion to place on the calendar.

TO HAVE BANQUET.

One to Be Tendered by the Prudential Insurance Company to the District Agents.

A banquet is to be given this evening at the Linville hotel by the Prudential insurance company of America to the district agents of that company in the Maryville district. Ed O'Donnell of this city is agency organizer, and the agents in the district are N. B. Thompson of this city, C. E.
Nelson of Creston, Ia.; W. Edington of Shenandoah, Ia., and F. E. Bellus of Clarinda, Ia. Messrs. Nelson, Edington and Bellus are in the city to attend the banquet.

Mr. Meloth of Newark, N. J., from the main office of the Prudential Insurance company, is in Maryville to attend the banquet, as is also E. Litz of Omaha, superintendent of the western district; Dr. J. A. Whitaker of St.
Joseph, Dr. Aldrich of Shenandoah,
Ia., and Dr. Meyers of Creston, Ia.

The menu for the banquet follows:

Blue Points on Half.
Celery. Olives.
Cream of Tomato Soup.
Soup Sticks.
Broiled White Fish, Butter Sauce.
Sweet Breads.
Roasted Squad with Currant Jelly.

Suing the Great Western.

A suit was filed Tuesday in the circuit clerk's office by W. E. Wiles, attorney for Hugh Thrasher against the Great Western Railroad company. According to the petition the plaintiff lost a 2-year-old gray mare, valued at $200, by the defendant's carelessness and negligence. Judgment for $400 is wanted by the plaintiff.

On Visit to Ottumwa.

THE MEN'S DINNER

TO BE GIVEN THURSDAY AT THE SOUTHERN METHODIST CHURCH.

IS FELLOWSHIP AFFAIR

And Many After-Dinner Speeches on That Subject Will Be Given—
Dinner at 7:30.

Plates will be laid for not less than seventy-five men Thursday evening, February 6th, at the men's fellowship dinner to be given in the Sunday school room of the Southern Methodist church. The men are asked to gather in the main auditorium of the church at 7 p. m. The doors to the dining room will be opened about 7:30. Admission to the dining room will be by ticket. About half of the men who will sit down at the table will be the especially invited guests of the men of the church. The dinner will be prepared and served by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary society. As is to be expected at a Methodist gathering, the four courses to be served to the hungry seekers after fellowship will rest upon that unfailing source of gas-tronomic satisfaction known as "Circuit Rider's Delight." Upon this satisfying portion, which we add in this case will be baked, other artistic culinary creations will be placed until every diner can say with the negro boy eating watermelon, "I've had enough everywhar 'cept my mouth."

The dinner is one of the several methods to be used by the fellowship committee in drawing the members of the church and their friends closer together. They are acting on the theory that every man likes the glad hand, and encouraging word. The committee is going to be a center for the radiation of friendship and good cheer in the church and community. They will see that the sick are visited and the poor looked after. Strangers will be met and welcomed at the door of the church. Their idea is that the church can be made a brotherhood in fact as well as in name.

The after-dinner speakers and their subjects will be as follows:

"Making Strangers Feel at Home With Us," Floyd Brown.

"Fellowship in the Church a Means to Greater Power," Prof. V. I. Moore.

"Some of the Plans of the Fellowship Committee," J. H. Thorpe.

"The Fellowship Side of Christianity," Dr. H. K. Taylor.

"Standing Together," Rev. J. D.
Randolph.

"Visiting the Sick," J. S. Muntz.

"The Young Men and Christian Fellowship," Glenn Lukins.

John Dawson and W. A. Blagg have been asked to speak to the men on some subject which may be suggested to them by the occasion.

Established New Road.

The application of George W.
Thompson, W. A. Shelman and A. F.
Florea and others for a new road in Union township, was granted by the county court Tuesday.

Charles H. Eaton returned to his home in Barnard Tuesday evening from a short visit with his daughters, Mrs. U. I. Willson and Mrs. Scribner
Beech, Jr. Mr. Eaton was accompanied home by his granddaughter, Miss Ethel Willson.

The Uses of Danger.

In each one of us is hidden unconfessed desire for a "bigger time" than that which the average allotment brings. It is a craving for adventure and danger—for a rush of events in which the nerve centers shall come sharply to attention and then show a heightened activity. Most of us are buried like moles in routine and trivialities, and a catastrophe throws off the encumbering earth. Only a few times in many years does there enter a sense of the full being coming to focus; an external situation matching the listless desire of the inner mood. Once in a storm at sea the tail end of the Galveston hurricane, on an Allan liner half way home from Glasgow, the pitching of the vessel, the size of the green waves breaking over the deck, the touch of actual danger at the stern—all these exciting conditions of the stormy day conferred a sense of peace to the spirit. There was tension, to be sure, but there underlay the high wrought mood the assurance of everything slipping into its proper place, and all things working in easy effectiveness. At last that day had come for which everyone waits. For once there was no sense that only a small portion of self was in commission. Always before, in each single event and act, there had been left over unfunctioning fragments, like unemployed riotous troops. When that call comes which would release us and unlock the hidden powers, a certain few respond. An anonymous hero appears at almost every accident and then retires to his place in the great crowd. That is the spectacle of routine bravery at many points around the globe. The sentry on duty, the captain on the bridge, the fireman on the ladder, all go blithely to sure death rather than turn their faces away from the unseen leader. That presence keeps them loyal to the job when thick smoke and stormy waters and the wrath of men would turn them.—Collier's Weekly.

Mercenary Mob.

"What did the crowd do when you told them you had never paid a dollar for a vote?"

"A few cheered, but most of them seemed to lose interest."—Washington Star.

IN RACE FOR FIRST HONORS.

Normal Y. M. C. A. in Contest Conducted by State Y. M. C. A.

The Normal Y. M. C. A. is in the race again this year for first honors in the contest which is carried on each year by the state department of the Young Men's Christian association. The local school scored first last year. The object of the contest is to give the different chapters of the schools of the state an incentive for more active work. The percentage is based on the number of men enrolled, and attendance at meetings, size of Bible study class and number of men taking active work in the mission study class all go to make up the total score on which the standing of the schools are based.

The schools of the state are divided into sections, with the university and colleges in one section and the five normals in another. The contest closes the middle of March, and bi-weekly statements are sent out giving the standing of the schools. The last statement gives Cape Girardeau first place with the Northwest Normal a close second.

AIMED AT LEGAL PROCEDURE.

Measures Prepared by Committee of State Bar Association before the Legislature.

Never before in the history of Missouri, except in the framing of constitutions, have lawyers and litigants had as many measures tending to improvement of the code of procedure as are before the present legislature. The proposed changes come from the lawyers themselves, who through the Missouri State Bar Association, have prepared a series of nine bills, which have been presented by Senator Alroy S. Phillips of St. Louis.

The bills were worked out by a committee consisting of J. M. Johnson, judge of the Kansas City Court of Appeals; P. Taylor Bryan of St. Louis and John D. Lawson, former dean of the law department of the University of Missouri, who studied judicial procedure in England as the representative of the American Bar Association.

In brief, the purpose of the bills are:

First—To abolish delay in judicial procedure so that persons claiming right to relief may join as plaintiffs.

Second—Providing for the transfer of cases to the proper court where brought in the wrong tribunal.

Third—Requiring the filing of an answer not less than 15 nor more than 30 days from date of issue; requiring true answer or judgment to adverse party.

Fourth—Requiring all practice, pleadings and forms in civil actions in all courts of record to accord with the rules prescribed by the Supreme Court.

Fifth—Allowing the trial judge to comment on the evidence in civil cases in his instructions to the jury.

Sixth—Providing for prompt and efficient construction of and rights of persons interested in deeds, wills, contracts and other written instruments.

Seventh—Providing for the construction of a law after it is passed, but before it becomes operative.

Eighth—Limiting appeals to cases that involve an amount only in excess of $100.

Ninth—Substituting the words "transcript of oral proceedings" for "bill of exceptions."

One of the features of the bills is that six of the nine have titles which begin "an act to abolish delay in judicial procedure, while the remaining bills will constitute new sections to the statutes. The new bills are the fifth, sixth and seventh, as numbered, while the others are amendatory to the statutes already on the books or are additions to sections already there.

Senator Phillips who assisted the committee in working out the plan under which the bills were drafted, said the changes were radical. They follow the English system in that it is proposed to give the Supreme Court power to lay down the rules for the courts of record.

While the backers of the bills fear there is not a great chance to have the measures passed by the present legislature, they hope it can be done. At least they declare there will be great help in causing a study of the problems presented, and they believe that as soon as the people generally, as well as the lawyers, learn that the adoption of the nine bills means a simplification of judicial procedure and a great financial saving, they will make the necessary demand for the passage of the measures.

From the fact that the senate is generally regarded as the best and surest legal advisor in a legislative way on bills affecting the judicial system of the state, the lawyers interested in the measures hope to secure action at an early date. If the senate passes the bills, the backers of the measures believe the house can be persuaded to adopt them.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Penelope Club to Meet Thursday Eve.

The Penelope club will meet this Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNeal. The husbands of the members of the club are to be the guests.

Miss Pauline Martin IH.

Miss Pauline Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Raleigh Martin of St. Joseph, who has been a Smith college girl since last September, is ill of nervous exhaustion at a sanitarium in Springfield, Mass. Her mother will go to Springfield and bring her home as soon as she is able to travel.

Successful Social.

The social and card party in St. Mary's church hall Tuesday evening was well attended and quite a success. The lady's prize was won by Miss Alice Protzman and the gentleman's prize by Bert Hiatt. During the luncheon and before the games began several numbers were given by Rev. Fr. Willebrode on his victrrola.

Indoor Track Meet.

The Young People's club of the Presbyterian church are looking forward to an evening of fun. They have planned to have an indoor track meet in the Sunday school rooms of the church tomorrow evening. The take-offs on various athletic events promise to manufacture a continuous laugh. Refreshments will be served after the track meet. All the young people of the church and congregation are invited.

For Mrs. Herbert H. Smith.

Mrs. George R. Eaton gave a delightful progressive domino party Tuesday afternoon to forty-five guests at her home in the Graves flats, a compliment to Mrs. Herbert H. Smith, the wife of Dr. H. H. Smith, who has recently located in our city. The hostess was assisted in entertaining and serving by the honor guest and Miss Lenore Schumacher and Miss Rose Schumacher. The game prize went to Mrs. T. L. Wadley. The luncheon consisted of chicken salad, sandwiches, olives, cheese straws, ices and coffee.

The Newlyweds Played Whist.

The Newlyweds Embroidery club and its husbands were entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Jesse Paulette with progressive whist. The decorations and luncheon were in red and white and suggestive of St. Valentine's day. Several piano numbers were given by Mrs. Leo Butler. There were three guests, Mrs. W. R. Hall of Kansas City, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Moyer; Mrs. Ida McKenzie, mother of the hostess, and Miss Louise Williams. The club members and their husbands present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harbison, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reavis.

M. L. Circle at Elks Club.

Mrs. J. F. Cook was hostess to the M. L. Circle in the tea rooms of the Elks club Tuesday afternoon. The devotions were led by Mrs. F. M. Martin. The roll call of current events was unusually interesting. One response was from Mrs. W. R. Wells, who is on leave of absence from the Circle, and is spending the winter in California with her family. Mrs. Wells' letter was very entertaining, beside the current events in California of which she wrote. Two excellent papers were given, one on "A Trip Through Italy," by Mrs. W. O. Garrett, and the other by Mrs. Omar Catterson on "Some Treasures of the Vatican." There was a good attendance of the membership and one new member was added, Mrs. Halbert Catterson. The next meeting of the Circle will be its midwinter social event, on Tuesday evening, February 18, at the home of Mrs. Charles McNeal. The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Mrs. W. B. Christy, Mrs. I. W. Nixon and Mrs. A. C. Hopkins.

Studied Home Economics.

A social function, a number ill, and several out of town decreased a bit the attendance at the meeting of the Economics department of the Twentieth Century club on Tuesday, but those who were there were repaid for their effort by an excellent program.

Most housewives, when they open factory canned vegetables only think, perhaps, of their rich color and whole appearance. That this is brought about by borax, boracic acid and benzoate of soda, all of which are extremely injurious was shown by Mrs. J. C. Allender under the subject "The Dangerous Use of Preserving Powders in Home and Factory Canning."

What it takes to be efficient socially,

DR. A. T. FISHER

Chronic Diseases. Eye Diseases
Pterygium, Cataract, Spectacles Maryville Nat'l Bank Bldg.
MARYVILLE, MO.

and the kind of a financial basis required to go with it was cleverly demonstrated by Mrs. S. D. Harkness in "Social Efficiency, and Can a $1,200 Income Bring Social Efficiency?" Her reasoning was not mere theorizing but facts indisputably given. It is almost appalling to know that three-fourths of the male wage earners and nineteen-twentieths of the female wage earners earn and live on less than $66 a year.

A well regulated home demands an adequate sum to be cheerfully given by the masculine wage earner and a judicious spending thereof by his helpmeet. To pay as one goes, not when life's needs are eaten up or worn out was the sentiment of Mrs. G. B. Roseberry's sensible paper on "Division of Income for Life's Necessities."

Married at Minister's Home.

Mr. Everett V. Cook and Miss Maggie Amy Owens of Skidmore were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Lee Harrel of the First Baptist church of this city. The bridal couple was accompanied by several relatives. The bridegroom is a nephew of James F. Cook of this city.

GUILFORD.

A debate on the immortal question of "Woman's Suffrage" was held at the Guilford school house Tuesday night, resulting in favor of suffrage for women. Every fence post in that neighborhood was posted Wednesday with signs "Votes for Women."

S. P. Curnutt has bought the R. P. Nelson farm, four miles northwest of Guilford, and will take possession March 1.

Glen Lincoln of Barnard has leased the William Kent farm, three miles southwest of Guilford, and will take possession March 1.

Paul Winters has leased the old Davis farm, owned by Jacob Breit, and will take possession March 1.

W. G. Oliver, the Maryville monument man, was in Guilford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis O. Thompson, living three miles southeast of Guilford, announce the birth of an eleven-pound son on Wednesday, February 5. Mrs. Brown is at the home of her parents at Helena, Mo., for which place Mr. Brown left Wednesday morning with their household goods, where they will make their future home.

Over $18,000 for Farm.

A big land deal was consummated Monday when T. E. Archer, living two and a half miles west of Old Conception, bought the 170-acre farm known as the Willits farm, three miles northeast of Stanberry, for $105 an acre. Mr. Archer's son, Dan Archer, will take possession of the farm March 1. Mr. Archer and his son recently sold their 120-acre farm, nine miles southeast of Clyde, to Bert Himef for $85 an acre, and will give possession March 1.

Death of Mrs. Nannie Biggs.

Mrs. Nannie Biggs, living near Burlington Junction, died at 9:15 o'clock Tuesday night, after a year's illness. The funeral services will take place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at Burlington Junction. Mrs. Biggs was 65 years of age. She is survived by two daughters, Miss Fern Biggs, at home, and Mrs. Charles Griffey of Burlington Junction, and a son, Leslie Biggs of Mound City. A sister, Mrs. Levi Wallace of near Elmo, also survives.

Received Good Price on Market.

Pete Myers, a farmer living near Maryville, took ninety-nine head of hogs to market Monday and received $7.65. The average weight was 185 pounds. Mr. Myers topped the morning market. Frank Mercer also had twenty-eight head of hogs on the market at South St. Joseph Monday, receiving $6.85.

He Was a Gentleman.

A Euclid Heights car—one of those horrible ones where you have to sit with your feet in the aisle—was lumbering along Euclid avenue yesterday afternoon, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. A very handsome and polite young man entered at East Thirtieth street. The only possible place to sit down was at the side of a broad lady who was trying to occupy a whole section.

"I beg your pardon," smiled the young man; "is this seat occupied?"

"Yes, sir," answered the wide lady, with a baby stare. "I am keeping it for a gentleman."

"That's me," grinned the young man, sliding into the seat. "How did you know what I was?"

A Use for It.

"At last some of the old medicine that mother has been saving for years and years comes in handy."

"How now?"

"These pills just fit Tommy's air rifle."

What the Kettle Sings.

I love to hear the kettle sing
In the winter when the wind is blowing,
Somehow it makes me think of spring,
Though it is snowing.

A little sort of chirp comes first.
And then a gentle drowsy humming,
That seems to say, "We're through the worst!"
Yes, spring is coming!"

I know quite well, outside the room,
What isn't snowy must be icy,
And yet I dream of fruit and bloom
In islands spicy—

And little running, laughing streams,
And dear green woods, with vines
and mosses,
And sunny places full of gleams,
When the wind tosses.

The leafy branches all about
Make just another sort of singing;
And little flurry things come out,
Leaping and springing

And always, when I get to this,
And feel a sort of pleasant creep,
My mother takes me with a kiss,
And "Oh, how sleepy!"
—Margaret Vandergrift.

MOTHER! WATCH THE CHILDREN'S BOWELS.

If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Bilious or Tense is Coated Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.—Advertisement.

FARRELL HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

Janitor's Confession Solves Three Bomb Cases.

MACHINE SENT TO ROSALSKY.

Man Mentally Unbalanced Possesses Ability to Make Bombs and Settles All His Grievances by Murder. Woman Killed Sunday Night.

New York, Feb. 5.—John Paul Farrell, a discharged apartment house janitor, confessed that he had killed Mrs. Bernard Herrera Sunday night by means of a bomb that he had made and that by similar means he had caused the death of Mrs. Helen Taylor a year ago and attempted the life of Judge Otto A. Rosalsky of the court of general sessions last March.

Farrell was held on a charge of murder for the killing of Mrs. Herrera.

Although the police are convinced the man is mentally unbalanced, Deputy Commissioner Dougherty said detectives he had sent out in numbers to investigate the case have learned enough to lead them to believe Farrell's startling story is true in the essentials, though false in many details.

Every time Farrell had a grievance he seems to have settled the business with a bomb. The trouble with Mrs. Herrera, he said, was that she "fired" him from his job as janitor and hired a negro in his place. He wanted to get Judge Rosalsky out of the way because the jurist had sentenced Joseph Harvey, a "pal," to serve thirty-nine years in Sing Sing for stealing $16 worth of jewelry. Farrell told the police he helped Harvey rob Peter Johnson's home in the Bronx in 1908, but easily escaped.

No Motive for One Murder.

Why Farrell wanted to kill the Taylor woman—sometimes known as Grace Walker—was more than the police could fathom. Early in his story Farrell said she was his daughter and he slew her because she had gone wrong. Later he denied this and said she was an intimate friend, but gave no reason for killing her. He also told Dougherty why and by whom "Kid" Walker was shot in 1887 on the Bowery. He said Walker betrayed the Taylor woman and a man named LeStrange killed him in revenge.

Having disposed of the bomb mysteries, Farrell confessed, the police assert, to having perpetrated a series of robberies in Brooklyn and the robbery of the Johnson home. Harvey and Harry Hartman, his companions in the latter exploit, were sentenced to Sing Sing for thirty-nine years and nine years respectively. Farrell never had been suspected of complicity in the crimes.

Dougherty said Farrell had served ten years in the New Jersey penitentiary for burglary and other crimes.

MURDER IN POLITICAL ROW

Kansas Detective in Republican-Socialist Contests Slain Near Dunkirk.

Pittsburg, Kan., Feb. 5.—Miss Emma Stanton, cashier in a store at Dunkirk, saw a form lying on the ground almost concealed by the heavy snow a short distance from Dunkirk. An investigation disclosed the body of Sam Reed of Pittsburg, interpreter for the contest courts in the recent Republican-Socialist hearings at Girard. He had been shot six times.

In the gathering of evidence for use in the contest hearings Reed acted as a detective as well as one of the official interpreters when the hearings were held.

For his part in the work he was threatened with death. It was alleged in the contest proceedings that many foreigners had been allowed to vote who were not citizens. Many foreigners were brought into court and it is said that the plot to kill Reed assumed shape there.

Withdraws Charges Against Senators.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Investigation of charges of corrupt practices in the election of Senators Watson and Chilton of West Virginia was halted when the senate committee on elections received a letter from L. G. Shock, a member of the West Virginia house of delegates, in which he withdrew statements upon which Governor Glasscock and other West Virginians petitioned the senate to investigate.

Body Found at Foot of Cliff.

Cleveland, Feb. 5.—The body of S. Homer Everett, the young society, club and business man, who mysteriously disappeared Saturday night, was found on the lake shore in Lakewood, at the foot of a high cliff. It is believed that Everett, when taken sick at a house warming, wandered out in a daze and fell over the cliff.

Ban on Dresses With Buttons at Back.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 5.—A bill was introduced in the legislature prohibiting women from wearing dresses that button up the back unless the buttons be as large as a dollar. The bill provides for a fine of $1 to $3, with a jail sentence for persistent offenders.

GRAND VIZIER ALREADY BUSY

Turkey Confident New Leaders Will Surprise Balkan Allies—Adrianople Fortress Expected to Hold Out for Long Time Despite Contrary Reports

Constantinople, Feb. 5.—The Bulgarians, according to reports received here, are retiring from the burning village of Tchatalja, especially on the left wing. This is regarded as a strategic move, possibly with the idea of drawing the Turks into taking the offensive.

The belief is held among military experts here that no serious operations are to be expected at Tchatalja for the present. The condition of the southern portion of the zone between the lines of the belligerents is such as to render the movement of men impossible. It is little better than a morass. Only on the higher ground in the northern region can the armies come into contact, and it seems improbable that either side will venture an attack in force. It is supposed that the Bulgarians denounced the armistice less on account of the failure of the negotiations than because they expected Adrianople would be obliged to surrender within a few days, and an armistice still in operation might have embarrassed their liberty of action.

Fortress May Hold Out.

According to the best information here the fortress will be able to resist for a long time. Much is expected by competent observers of the new blood which is now at the head of both Turkish military and civil administrations, burning to avenge the earlier defeats, and the enterprise of the daring men like Enver Bey, now for the first time given a chance, it is believed, may surprise the allies.

The new grand vizier, Mahmoud Schevket Pasha, is already showing the organizing qualities which won him renown and gives many hours a day to superintending in person the military arrangements.

NAPLES SCENE OF BATTLE

Rioting Occurs as Result of Public Protest Against Taxes.

Naples, Feb. 5.—A hundred persons, ringleaders of a riot here, are now under arrest, while a force of troops occupies the entire city hall square to suppress any attempt made to attack the municipal structure.

The arrests were the outgrowth of public clamor against taxes. A meeting of protest was held, at which a strike of twenty-four hours was proclaimed against the proposed extension of the limits of the city for the purpose of enforcing the municipal tax on foodstuffs.

Speeches of a violent nature were made at the meeting, which drew a large crowd and also a large number of thugs. The latter are blamed for most of the trouble.

When the meeting had adjourned the mob, headed by the lower element, started to march on the city hall building, but en route collided with a strong force of police. The policemen were overwhelmed, and reinforcements of cavalry were called out. The cavalry charged upon the crowd, but its efforts were in vain. The mob tore up the pavements and hurled large pieces of stone and broken bottles at the police and troops.

The commander of the cavalry then ordered his men to draw their sabers. Another charge was made and the mob was dispersed.

Apparatus to Capsize Airship.

Paris, Feb. 5.—An apparatus which, it is claimed, will cause an aeroplane of any type to capsize in the air is being investigated by General Hirschauer of the flying corps of the French army. It is claimed that the apparatus, which is light and simple and can be carried in a soldier's knapsack, will provoke atmospheric disturbances sufficiently heavy to affect any aeroplane flying lower than 2,000 feet. It is thought the invention, if proven practicable, might have a serious bearing on the value of the aeroplane in war.

Aids Starving Coal Miners.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 5.—Cold and starving coal miners in Blue Mound have been temporarily relieved by an emergency donation of $750 from the state organization of United Mine Workers. The money was distributed to seventy-five families. The distress among the miners has been caused by the failure of the Austin Coal company and the miners' inability to collect $11,000 in wages due them. The number of men affected is 142.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Lies in That Cough and Weak, Worn Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Crabill of Strasburg, Va., says: "Grippe left me weak, run-down and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Says a Girl Should Not Take a Boy's Arm.

In the "Home Problem" department of the February Woman's Home Companion appears the following letter:

"I am eighteen years old and about to enter society. I am a little uncertain what to do in regard to gentlemen friends. Should I take a gentleman's arm when he is my escort in the evening? Ought I to thank him for civilities, and may I accept presents?"

The following answer to the question raised is made by the editor of the department:

"In the first place, my dear child do not use the expression 'gentleman friends.' Neither 'gentleman friends' nor 'lady friends' belong to good form in common conversation. I would have you speak at the right time of the gentleman and the lady, but when you are talking of them socially it is better to say 'man friend' and 'woman friend.' You are not to take a man's arm when walking with him, nor on the other hand, is he to take yours. A man may give his arm to a woman who is crippled, infirm, blind, or aged. A young woman stands and walks without assistance. Make it a rule always to thank everybody, men and women alike, if they show you politeness or render assistance. Do not accept costly presents from a man who is neither your brother nor your fiancé. The man who is your escort may send you flowers. An intimate friend may bring you bonbons or present you with a book."

BEACH ASSAULT TRIAL BEGINS

New York Millionaire Charged With Slabbing Wife.

JURY SECURED IN SHORT TIME

Defendant and Wife Deny Charge and Say Crime Was Committed by Negro—Four Witnesses Tell of Hearing Screams.

Aiken, S. C., Feb. 5.—Taking of testimony in the trial of Frederick O. Beach, a New York millionaire, charged with assault on his wife with intent to kill, was started in the Aiken county court. The jury was secured in twenty-two minutes. Only a few of the members of the wealthy winter colony appeared in the court room.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach sat together and heard the prosecuting attorney attempt to prove to a jury of countrymen that the New York society man had made a murderous attack on his wife with a penknife in Aiken last winter.

Eleven witnesses were called by the state and a slow start was made in their examination. Prosecutor Gunter directed his efforts to attacking the story told by Beach and substantiated by his wife, to the effect that Mrs. Beach had been attacked by a negro when she left the house to give her dogs an airing.

Not one witness whose evidence consumed the trial's first day would give details of the assault.

Four members of the O'Brien family, living across the street, told of a series of screams from the different parts of the Beach premises about 9:30 on the night of Feb. 26. Two of them testified that the dying echo of the last scream was quickly followed by loud rapping on a door and the sound of a man's voice exclaiming: "This is Beach, let me in."

DARROW TRIAL RESUMED

Mrs. Bain Tells of Asking Husband to Accept Bribe.

Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—The direct examination of Mrs. Robert F. Bain, wife of the McNamara juror Clarence S. Darrow, is accused of having bribed, was concluded when the attorney's trial was resumed. Mrs. Bain was so overcome by emotion that a short recess was called to permit her to regain her composure. Afterwards she told of having used her influence on her husband to induce him to accept bribe money from Bert H. Franklin, a detective employed by Darrow when he was chief counsel for the McNamara brothers.

Subway Contract Enjoined.

New York, Feb. 5.—Thirty minutes before the public service commission was to have met to sign the operating contracts for New York's new $300,000,000 subway an injunction was served, prohibiting the commission from taking action. The injunction was obtained by Clarence J. Hearst, counsel for William Randolph Hearst. Hearst has been fighting for a municipal operating plan.

Warned by Boston Strike Leaders Not to Resort to Violence.

Boston, Feb. 5.—Several society women joined the hands of strikers in picketing the forty shops affected by the walkout of 5,000 garment workers to enforce demands for an increase in wages and better working conditions. The women pickets were warned by the strike leaders not to resort to violence.

BLOCK CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS

Democrats in Senate Break Quorum in Executive Session.

Washington, Feb. 5.—After several ineffectual attempts to secure consideration of President Taft's appointments the senate Republicans succeeded finally in forcing an executive session. Democrats opposed the motion and were joined by Senator La Follette.

The Democratic filibuster to prevent any action was resumed as soon as the doors were closed. With appointments sent to the senate during the last two weeks the total number now pending is nearly 1,800, involving practically all appointments made by President Taft since the beginning of the session in December. The fight came to a halt when Democrats succeeded in forcing the senate to adjourn. Democrats absented themselves from the chamber as soon as the executive session began. It was found impossible to get a quorum.

MERCHANT MUST PAY FOR AD

Missouri Blue Law Cannot Be Used to Evade Bills.

St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The St. Louis court of appeals refused to apply the Missouri "blue law" to save a local merchant from paying for an advertisement in a Sunday newspaper.

The merchant sought exemption from the debt on the plea that the publication of a newspaper on Sunday was a violation of the Sunday law.

The court of appeals ruled that as the merchant was a party to the contract for publication of his advertisement on Sunday he could not invoke the Sunday law to secure release from payment.

A similar case before the Kansas City court of appeals was decided in a similar manner and the matter now will be taken to the state supreme court for determination.

Part of Train Lost in Tunnel.

St. Louis, Feb. 5.—Baltimore and Ohio westbound train No. 3, known as the St. Louis express, broke in two in the tunnel under the business district of the city and for an hour three sleeping cars attached to the rear of the train were lost. The absence of the sleeping cars was not discovered until the train pulled into the station. They were found in the tunnel a short distance from the western entrance to the bridge.

Two Trainmen Killed in Wreck.

Sedalia, Mo., Feb. 5.—Joseph C. Aitemueller, engineer, and Patrick Curran, conductor, were killed when a southbound mixed train on the Missouri Pacific railway was wrecked on a curve near Coal Camp, twenty miles south of here. The engine and two cars rolled down an embankment.

Brother of W. A. Paxton Dead.

Montgomery, Mo., Feb. 5.—Preston Paxton, a well known citizen here, brother of the late millionaire cattleman, William Paxton of Omaha, died after an illness of several months, which affected his mind. He was seventy-three years of age.

GAS, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION VANISH.

As Soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" Gets in Stomach All Distress Is Gone.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's, Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul, tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world—Advertisement.

Here From Lincoln.

Mrs. John Swann of Lincoln, Neb., is in Maryville with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Finn of Denver, Col., who was called to Maryville last week to the bedside of her husband, the late Dr. W. B. Finn. Mrs. Finn and her son and daughter will accompany Mrs. Swann to her home in Lincoln to remain for awhile.

THE ASTONISHING IMPRESSION

That a Country Preacher Made of Several Small Boys.

David Grayson, writing one of his new "Adventures in Contentment," in the February American Magazine, tells about being out-of-doors on a warm spring Sunday with several small boys when the village preacher came along. He goes on to say:

"I don't know what might have happened, had we not been interrupted by the appearance of a Specter in Black. It appeared before us there in the broad daylight in the middle of a sunny afternoon while we were playing 'Yankee Doodle.' First I saw the top of a black hat rising over the rim of the hill. This was followed quickly by a black tie, a long black coat, black trousers, and, finally, black shoes. I admit I was shaken, but being a person of iron nerve in facing such phenomena I continued to play 'Yankee Doodle.' In spite of this counter-attraction, toward which all four boys turned uneasy glances, I held my audience. The Black Specter, with a black book under his arm, drew nearer. Still I continued to play and nod my head and tap my toe. I felt like some modern Pied Piper piping away the children of these modern hills—piping them away from older people who could not understand them."

"I could see an accusing look on the Specter's face. I don't know what put it into my head, and I had no sooner said it than I was sorry for my levity but the figure with the sad garments there in the matchless and triumphant spring day affected me with a curious sharp impatience. Had anyone the right to look out so dolefully upon such a day and such a scene of simple happiness as this? So I took my whistle from my lips and asked:

"Is God dead?"

"I shall never forget the indescribable look of horror and astonishment that swept over the young man's face. 'What do you mean, sir?' he asked with an air of stern authority which surprised me. His calling for the moment lifted him above himself: it was the church which spoke!"

"I was on my feet in an instant, regretting the pain I had given him; and yet it seemed worth while now, having made my inadvertent remark, to show him frankly what lay in my mind. Such things sometimes help men."

"I meant no offense, sir," I said, and I apologize for my flummery, but when I saw you coming up the hill looking so gloomy and disconsolate on this bright day, as though you disapproved of God's world, the question slipped out before I knew it."
